I grew up listening to, and loving, all kinds of music… but somewhere in my pre-teens, I got bitten hard by Rock and Roll - so I decided to devote a whole album to the little monster.

This album is dedicated to WABC, WNEW and WPIX-FM radio in New York, three wonderful jukeboxes, Mick Ronson, Earl Slick, Carlos Alomar, Brian May and Bill Nelson (and SO many others) for the guitar inspiration, David Bowie for making such great, great music, Dave Fields for sharing the wonder that being bitten meant, David Englesher for turning a kid onto SO much amazing music, and Sal Caltabiano, for being the first person to let me share in the beautiful act of working in the studio - your faith in a young punk changed me forever.

To Frank and Jude and Andrew and Barry for rocking and rolling with me month after month.

To Mom, who put this love of music in me.

To Dad, who walked me into the studio for the very first time.

To Elyse and Laura... I learned to harmonize singing with YOU.

To Sky - for reminding me early on how great it was to put on some rock and roll... and to Figlet... Daddy is gonna play you some awesome records.

I wouldn’t be here without you all, and I’m grateful as hell.
